St. Bartholomew's Anglican Church

Seventh Sunday after Trinity 15th July 2018

Dear Friends,

One feature of our spirituality journey is that it should allow us the freedom to grow and to adapt. The modern lyrics from the traditional Peruvian song El Condor Pasa sum up that journey nicely ...

A snail can be slow and stuck on the same spot; whereas a sparrow is fleet and free to fly where it wants. A hammer gives us the strength to build; whereas a nail, while useful to hold things together, gets put in one place, never going anywhere else.

Someone tied to one place is not going to develop. A forest is somewhere we can evolve, and expand our horizons; rather than a street, linear and trampled on. And who doesn't feel spiritual when we have "the earth beneath [our] feet." This song (you'll find the lyrics overleaf) can help define our spiritual journey.

Let's listen to it and seek to journey high like a condor!

With blessings,

Philip

2018 Worshippers Fund: We are an entirely self-funded Church and we are therefore dependent on the generosity and regular giving of our congregation – both resident and visitors alike.

As we did last year, we are asking our regular worshippers to consider making a contribution towards our annual expenses of the Church, which we expect will be higher in 2018 than in previous years given the burden after Hurricane Irma. We are suggesting a donation of $250 per worshipper or $500 per family to help us. In 2017 the Worshippers Fund raised over $20k. There are 3 ways to donate:

1. Send a check to the Friends (envelopes are available in the Church and the address is listed below)
2. Online via the Church website (see back page)
3. Directly to the Church (please see or contact Philip for details).

Methods 1 and 2 are donations to our US 501(3)c, which are tax deductible for US citizens.

Letter to the Ephesians – Ch 1

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love.

He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory.

In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

The Gospel according to Mark – Ch 6

King Herod heard of the healings and other miracles, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him."

But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised."

For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her.

For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."

And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it."

And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom."

She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer."

Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter."

The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her.

Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

by

Simon & Garfunkel

I'd rather be a sparrow than a snail

Yes I would

If I could

I surely would

I'd rather be a hammer than a nail

Yes I would

If I only could

I surely would

Away, I'd rather sail away

Like a swan that's here and gone

A man gets tied up to the ground

He gives the world

Its saddest sound

Its saddest sound

I'd rather be a forest than a street

Yes I would

If I could

I surely would

I'd rather feel the earth beneath my feet

Yes I would

If I only could

I surely would

Notre Père (French)

Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,

que ton nom soit sanctifié,

que ton règne vienne.

Que ta volonté soit faite

sur la terre comme au ciel.

Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour.

Pardonne-nous nos offenses,

comme nous pardonnons aussi

à ceux qui nous ont offensés.

Et ne nous soumet pas entrer à la tentation,

mais délivre-nous du mal.

Car c'est à toi qu'appartiennent le règne,

la puissance et la gloire,

dans les siècles des siècles.

Amen
