Our Weekly News - 15 November 2020

Dear Friends,

This week the island has had more than its fair share of rain ... but I am happy to say that the sun is now shinning again!

We were also very happy to resume our Sunday services in the Church, and it was great to see some familiar (masked) faces, as well as a few new ones.

This week we have Father Steve Huber celebrating our virtual Eucharist, as well as preaching. Our service starts off with the traditional hymn All People that on Earth Do Dwell, and then Ombeline Collin and Michael Parisot are playing Pachabel's Canon in D for our meditation. Our final hymn is one of our favourites, Amazing Grace; this version is sung from countries around the world in their own language, and was recorded earlier this year during the first lockdown ... and as many countries have chosen to go into a second lockdown, it seems appropriate that we should be watching it now!

We continue to hold our Zoom Coffee hour at 10am (Island time/AST) each Sunday ... do think of joining us. Details of this Zoom meeting, the people on our prayer list, as well as how to give, are set out below.

With blessings,
Philip

This week's Opening Hym

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His folk, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep, He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise;
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.
